Monsieur Lazhar

Canada's submission for Best Foreign Language Film at the 84th Academy Awards and Winner of the City of Toronto Award for Best Canadian Feature Film.

Directed by acclaimed filmmaker Philippe Falardeau and from the producers of last year's Academy Award®-nominated Incendies, Monsieur Lazhar is one of the most gripping Québécois films of the last decade. Following the tragic and shocking death of a Montreal schoolteacher, Bachir Lazha – a middle-aged Algerian immigrant seeking political refuge in Quebec – swiftly pursues the opportunity to fill the sudden vacancy and come to the aid of the overworked principal and students affected by this tragedy.
