BILLY BISHOP GOES TO WAR

Premiering at the 2011 Toronto International Film Festival®, Billy Bishop Goes to War is one of the most beloved and widely produced works in the Canadian theatre canon. Since its debut in 1978, John Gray and Eric Peterson's Governor General's Award-winning, two-man stage production has played to audiences all over the English-speaking world including stints on Broadway and in London's West End. It's most recent revival, which once again featured Gray at the piano and Peterson giving his marathon portrayal of no less than eighteen different characters, is an intimate and entertaining new film from veteran Canadian director Barbara Willis-Sweete.
